GENERAL SERVICES ADMINISTRATION CIRCULAR NO. 55

TO: Heads of Federal Agencies

SUBJECT: Change in Name of the United States Court of Appeals Building

1. Purpose. This Circular changes the name of the Federal property formerly known as the United States Court of Appeals Building, Washington, D. C.
2. Change in Name. The Federal property located at 5th and E Streets, N. W., Washington, D. C., and formerly known as the United States Court of Appeals Building, shall hereafter be known as the "United States Court of Military Appeals." The function of operation of this building formerly vested in the Administrative Office of the United States Courts, was transferred to the General Services Administration effective July 1, 1952, by Bureau of the Budget directive of June 25, 1952. The repair and improvement functions formerly performed by the Architect of the Capitol were transferred to the General Services Administration when the building was vacated by the United States Court of Appeals on October 1, 1952.
3. Effective Date. This change in name is effective immediately.
